HOBBS APPARENTLY NOT WORRIED

Thinks That He Can Fix Things Up With His Wife--Will Be Brought Back Today

Deputy Sheriff Wilbur B. Shaw left last night for Bangor to get Henry Hobbs who is wanted by the county authorities for the alleged abduction of his wife, Millie Damon Hobbs from the home of her uncle, Mr. Albion Janness, South street on the night of November 13.

Hobbs was arrested in Bangor yesterday as related in The Herald, being identified by John Hodgdon, formerly principal of the Horace Mitchell grammar school at Kittery Point, who knew Hobbs from having run on the car with him on the Atlantic Shore line.

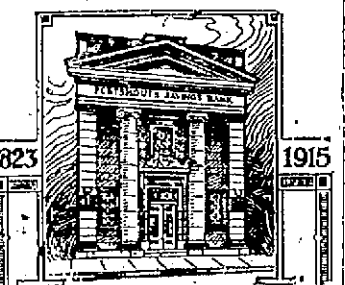

At the Bangor police station, Hobbs was apparently willing to talk and he said: "I never loved but one woman and she is the one. We were happy together until we went to live with Charles Curtis in Haverhill and he poisoned her mind against me. I sued him for the alienation of her affections, and since then we have been living apart. I shall go back without extradition, and I have plenty of money to fight the case. I am certain that my wife and I will soon be together again."

BERLIN STILL HAS FAITH IN GREECE

Reports That Kitchener's Mis- sion Has Been a Failure.

That with the capture of Pristina and Mitrovia the last section of the Serbian railroad is now in the hands of the Central Powers forces.

Many persons from the surrounding towns took advantage of the fine weather of today to visit the city to do their weekly trading.

FARMERS FOR OFFICERS IN VOLUNTEER ARMY

Secretary Garrison Will Suggest
Plan for Gaining 2000 Men a Year
From the Agricultural Colleges.

Washington, Nov. 25.—A hitherto untapped resource for officers for the volunteer forces of the United States will be tapped by Secretary of War Garrison in a recommendation to Congress, soon to be made public. This resource is the landgrant colleges, which are capable, experts here estimate, of turning out at least 2500 men a year of the grade of first or second lieutenant. Outside estimates set $3,500,000 as the appropriation necessary to stimulate students to take the extended course of military training outlined by war college authorities.

It is stated that military authorities here believe that this scheme will go far towards solving the pressing problem of how to secure a sufficient available officer reserve for a citizen army of 1,000,000 men at least 60,000 citizen officers are required. These cannot be supplied by West Point, which turns out about 116 officers annually, nor by the private military academies, which turn out approximately an equal number.

A "Natural Resource"
Assistant Secretary Carl Vrooman of the Department of Agriculture has been cooperating with the War Department in evolving a scheme for the utilization of this "natural resource." According to a memorandum prepared under Mr. Vrooman's direction, the United States Government should provide uniforms for the entire enrollment of students taking military work. At the beginning of each term volunteers for the officer reserve should be called for, and those volunteering should be classed separately, given a special drill and at the end of the first year the selection, on a competitive basis, should be made to fill the allotment in the officer reserve for the coming year.

During the second year's training all those qualifying for the reserve should receive a monthly allowance of $15 a month for the nine months school year all passing the regulation test at the end of the school year to be assigned to military camp for three months training on full pay of second lieutenant and with regulation equipment furnished by the War Department, commission as second lieutenant to be awarded at the close of this camp training. This three months' camp training will follow the close of the school year, so that students having further work to do will be free to return for the full term, and additional military work may be carried on, if desired. It is proposed to reserve a certain number of commissions in the regular army for graduates in this three months' training school selection to be made on competitive basis and acceptance voluntary.

At present, students in the fifty land grant colleges furnish their own uniforms. Experts here believe that the Government should buy the outfits, which cost $15 apiece, and which for 32,000 men would cost about $480,000; target practice would cost $50,000 and the military training camps would cost it is estimated, $2,700,000.

The immediate pulling into effect of this scheme would produce, at a conservative estimate, more than 22,000 reserve officers for the first line by 1924, the number gradually increasing year after year.

Getting After the Fakers.

The fact that the subject of fake advertising is to be taken up by the Federal Trade Commission should be good news to honest advertisers the country over, and to the general public as well. The decision to do this was reached a few days ago at the conclusion of a hearing held before the commission at the request of the officers of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, who urged the commission to take action in the cases of fake advertisers, who are very numerous, according to representations made by the men appearing before the commission.

An important point brought out was that honest business men and the public are not adequately protected by state laws. One of the witnesses stated that thirty-two states have laws designed to protect the public against fraudulent advertisers, but when the advertiser is located in one state and the advertisement appears in another nothing can be done under these state laws to bring the offender to justice. This condition makes governmental action desirable, and honest people everywhere will be glad to know that such action is to be taken.

The magnitude of the crooked business done by fake advertisers was shown by one of the witnesses at the hearing, who said he had been informed by the solicitor for the postoffice department that during the four years prior to 1915 fully $239,000,000 had been filched from the people of the country by fake investment concerns. This may come under the head of "big business," but it is not the kind of business that should be tolerated, and it is high time that the power of the government should be brought to bear in rooting it out.

Advertising is today the lifeblood of business as never before. Most advertising is honest because most business men are honest, but there are crooks in all walks of life, and some of these through skillful advertising have been able to bleed the public mercilessly and get away unscathed with their plunder.

It is time that steps were taken to end this evil, and the chances are that there will soon be a law that will render this form of swindling more difficult and precarious than it has been in the past. Honest advertisers and the public are entitled to such protection as the government can provide in this field. Dishonest advertising detracts from the value of all advertising by implanting a spirit of distrust in the minds of the people. It should be reduced to the minimum and eliminated if possible, and all except the fakers will be glad to know that the government stands ready to lend a hand in the good work.

One man to whom the government advanced money to help him home from Europe at the beginning of the war says there was a mistake in the publication of his name in the list of delinquents. Instead of $2.50, as published, he says the government advanced $52.50, but he ran across a man who was willing to pay his fare home and "blew in" what he got from the government. He says he may pay it back if he ever gets "good and flush." It has been announced that those who refused to settle would be proscribed, and this would seem like a pretty good case to begin on.

Great indeed is football. At one of the recent big intercollegiate games where thousands and thousands were expended for seats the hat was passed for the relief of war sufferers and the collection amounted to more than $11,000. True it is in more than one sense that there is nothing small about an American football crowd.

The popularity of the postal savings banks is on the increase, there having been immense additions to the deposits in the month of October. The rate of interest paid by these banks is low, but it is apparent that they appeal strongly to believers in "safety first."

A memorial meeting for the late Booker T. Washington is to be held in New York in February, and among the speakers will be some of the most prominent men of the country. The man who was born a slave made a name and achieved a fame that will endure.

The Liberty Bell has brought joy and enthusiasm to many communities on its way home from the San Francisco exposition. This a grand old relic and the country will breathe easier after it has been returned unharmed to its historic resting place.

Apple growers in some sections who sold their crops in the fall still have them in hand, the buyers canceling the orders when prices took a drop. But how would it have been if prices had jumped the other way?

CURRENT OPINION

Japan Has No Designs on the Integrity of the Chinese Nation.

For many years America has been Japan's warmest friend, but several direct overt acts on our part have caused serious international friction. The nonsense published in many of the American papers last spring and summer that Japan, taking advantage of the European situation, was about to annex China, close the much discussed "open door" and sit down to digest the whole meal in complacent ease unless we interfered and stopped it emanated from a subsidized clique in Peking.

We living in the east know that this was an organized attempt to deceive American people and cause trouble between the two nations.

If Japan should attempt to swallow China she would have a greater attack of indigestion than she would care to endure.

The partitioning of China would be as dangerous to Japan as to us, and recent treaties are a distinct safeguard against this. The treaty of south Manchuria and eastern Inner Mongolia is nothing more than the fulfillment of normal conditions, the result of the Portsmouth treaty between Russia and Japan.—By Dr. Rudolph B. Teusler, Head of the International Hospital at Tokyo.

RAIN FOR ARMY AND NAVY GAME

President Wilson and Other Officials Present—Army the Favorite.

(Special to The Herald)
Polo Grounds, N. Y., Nov. 27.—A steady drizzle of rain prevailed here this afternoon at the opening of the annual Army and Navy football game and while it killed off the spectacular display of gowns by the women and the gold lace uniforms by the officers, it did not materially affect the attendance and there were 41,000 present when the game started.

President Wilson with Mrs. Galt and his official family were present, and Secretary Garrison headed the Army rowers while on the other side of the field Secretary Daniels was working in a like capacity for the Navy.

The rain which started before the noon hour had the field in a very bad condition and fast playing is not looked for.

PEOPLES' OPINION

Tax Payer Has a Kick.
So. Elliot, Nov. 27, 1915.

Editor—
As a tax payer of the town I wish to suggest, through the columns of your paper that the members of the fire department of South Elliot start to improve conditions when they get located in the new quarters on Cross street. I hope and trust that they will realize the importance of the department and that the apparatus will not be taken from the house on any occasion excepting for a fire or fire drill. Another matter which I wish to speak of is that of public subscription to furnish the furniture and fittings in the quarters. While I am in favor of lending financial assistance for the good of the department I do not believe that the citizens should be called upon to give money for chairs, tables and other articles to make the quarters comfortable for club purposes. If the men are seeking a landing place in connection with the department and want social sessions, they should by all means provide for that themselves. We want benches for the protection of life and property, not for the amusement which they are evidently seeking during the winter months.

CARRANZA TROOPS GUILTY OF SHOOTING

Not Villa's as First Reported That Shot Across Texas Border.

(Special to The Herald)
Washington, Nov. 27.—The shooting across the Texas border where several Americans were injured and one soldier killed yesterday, was done by the soldiers of Carranza instead of Villa men as reported at first. This information came to the war department from Gen. Pershing, who stated that the shooting was a mistake on the part of Carranza forces.

VILLA'S POWER IS SHATTERED

(Special to The Herald)
Nogales, Ari., Nov. 27.—Villa's power is shattered, having abandoned Nogales without firing a shot. The former powerful chief is now in full retreat to some southern fastness.

PLYMOUTH THEATRE

Thoroughly delightful, is the play which the noted actress, Margaret Anglin, will present at the Plymouth Theatre, Boston, for a limited engagement beginning Monday, Nov. 29.

"Beverly's Balance"—writes Matthew White in Munsey's Magazine—is a modern comedy by Paul Kester, who dramatized "When Knighthood Was in Flower," and "The Cavalier" for Julia Marlowe, and wrote "Sweet Nell of Old Drury" in which Ada Rehan made a brief appearance after her Svengali—Augustin Daly—passed away.

The charm of the piece lies in the skill with which Mr. Kester has handled ugly facts prettily. For divorce is ugly, and divorce is the factor without which there wouldn't be any play in this case. Miss Anglin is not a principal, but the co-respondent—a perfectly blameless one, for she undertakes the job not only to obtain money enough to tide her over a shallow spot in her fortunes, but also to reunite the disaffected couple. Her purpose is accomplished by some interesting manoeuvres, flavored with clever lines that are not such a far cry from the brilliant repartee in "Lady Windermere's Fan," which Miss Anglin has been playing for the past twelve months.

As Beverly Dwindle, an impoverished southern woman, whose voice has faded, thus losing her church choir engagement in New York, Miss Anglin gives a wholly charming performance. I noticed Charles Frohman in a box, on one of his rare visits to the play, and could not but wonder if his mind went back to one afternoon at his Empire Theatre, when he saw this young school-act pupil from Ottawa do so well that he offered her the part of Madeline West in a touring company of "Shepherd's Song."

The public first took note of Miss Anglin as Roxanne with Mansfield in "Cyrano." This was in 1898; a few years later she joined Mr. Frohman's stock company at the Empire, where she registered her great hit in "Mrs. Dane's Defense." A later milestone in her career was set up in 1906, when she created Ruth Jordan in "The Great Divide," with Henry Miller. She went over to comedy four years ago with "Green Stockings."

The matinee at this theatre are on Thursdays and Saturdays, and for the convenience of put of town patrons the management assure all mail orders will receive careful attention.

A healthy man is a king in his own right; an unhealthy man an unhappy slave. For injured blood and sluggish liver, use Burdock Blood Bitters. On the market 35 years, $1.00 a bottle.

DEFECTIVE TEETH.

Examinations of school children have shown as high as 70 per cent. with defective teeth. Surveys of some sections of the country have shown less than 50 per cent. using tooth brushes, a thing happily not true everywhere. We are paying more attention to the small things that make for bodily health. Advertising has been one of the awakeners of public thought. It is spreading the gospel of clean, healthy teeth as well as cleaner and better modes of living. The advertising columns of this newspaper tell the constructive story every day.

ITALY WILL JOIN BALKAN FORCES

As Soon as Fall of Gorizia Is Accomplished Army Will Be Released for Balkans.

(Special to The Herald)

Rome, Nov. 27.—Assurances have been given Lord Kitchener that the Italians will take an active part in the Balkan campaign. He was told that the fall of Gorizia would release a large force of Italian troops and later the capture of the Austrian stronghold the big army will be free for other fields and large part will be sent to the Balkans to re-inforce the Anglo-French troops.

MAKE APPEAL FOR AMBULANCE DRIVERS

Mrs. Arthur Astor Carey Tells of the Good Work of American Drivers.

Editor:

May I ask the privilege of your columns for the following extracts from letters from Mr. Henry D. Sleeper of Boston and Dr. A. Platt Andrew, formerly Asst. Secretary of the Treasury, now in charge of the American Field Ambulance?

My appeal is in behalf of the Field Service of the American Ambulance in France. As the saving of the lives of wounded soldiers depends quite as much upon their quick transportation as upon their surgical treatment, the "American Ambulance Hospital in Paris" has organized a field service of more than a hundred motor ambulances, driven by young American volunteers, mostly graduates of American universities. To them has been entrusted successfully the vitally important matter of bringing the wounded in the shortest possible time to places where the first surgical help can be given. Upon this first surgical help, depends largely, of course, the chance of the wounded surviving long enough to reach the base hospitals. These ambulances are grouped in sections of twenty to thirty cars each, and each section is attached to one of the French Army Corps. They carry wounded between the front and the army hospitals within the French zone. The service with the French armies at the front is called the Field Service of the American Ambulance.

Of the one hundred and twenty ambulances so generously contributed by American friends, few were accompanied by gifts sufficient for maintenance during more than three months, and as experience shows that the average expense of maintaining this service amounts to approximately $50 a month per ambulance, it now becomes necessary if this important work of the Field Service is to be continued, to provide a monthly income of about $6,000.

I have voluntarily assumed the responsibility of raising the $72,000 ($6,000 a month) necessary for this special Field Service during the coming year. Some has been already given, the remaining $40,000 must be raised for the most part by smaller donations. While the numberless and poignant calls for monetary assistance which nearly everyone is having at this time, preclude the hope of many large gifts, I cannot help believing the contributions so generously begun for this gallant cause may inspire many persons of small means or otherwise, to do what they are able toward assuring the continuation of this work. Of course any monthly subscriptions, $50, $25, $10, or $5 will be received with warm appreciation, or any single gift no matter how small, for everything helps, and often out of small sums from unknown friends comes warm inspiration for carrying the effort on to achievement.

Quoting from Dr. Andrew's letter: "Winter is already near and life for our men is becoming much harder than it has been. Even where they live in houses, there is no heat and the rooms are cold and damp. They get up by candle light, and by five in the afternoon it is dark again. Their army rations can no longer be supplemented by fresh vegetables and fruits from neighboring gardens. There is no comparison between the discomforts of the men during the short winter days and their life in the summer, therefore I am anxious to secure for them as many of the creature comforts as possible. I have recently gotten some oil stoves for their living and eating rooms, but other things also need to be provided, as most of the men are poor and the majority of them, who had money at the start, have been here eight or ten months and have spent all they had."

Dr. Andrew suggests further that I collect a few gifts, such as woolen socks, gloves and helmets, paper waistcoats and warm underclothing, both for these young Americans who often work day and night for long periods without rest, and for the wounded whom they carry from the battlefield dressing stations to the various base hospitals, so that a little bit of cheer and comfort may make Christmas less dreary to them.

Donations of money or clothing clearly addressed to me, may be left at C. W. Bass' drug store, where I will call for them daily and forward at once to Dr. Andrew who promises to deliver them personally to the various ambulance sections along the front.

Yours truly,
AGNES CAREY,
Creek Farm, Little Harbor road,
Thanksgiving day, 1915.

FORD WANTS CARDINAL GIBBONS TO JOIN PEACE MOVE

(Special to The Herald)

CHICAGO TO GET REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Reservation of Rooms by Leaders Makes This a Fore-cast of Committee's Choice.

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Belief that the Republican convention will be held in Chicago was strengthened today when it became known that U. S. Senator J. W. ## AMERICAN STEAMER EVADED CAPTURE

"THE LAUGHING MUSE."

Mr. Arthur Gutterman, whose book, "The Laughing Muse," has just been published by the Harpers, has fairly earned the right to a place beside such acknowledged masters of light verse as W. S. Gilbert and the immortal "C. S. C." The Gilbertian smoothness and ingenuity of his meters, the touch of real poetic feeling here and there in the midst of his fun, which reminds one of Colverly, the unexpectedness and naturalness of his rhymes, which suggest no one but himself, are all marks of one of the rarest of talents. Mr. Gutterman can add to a jest the grace of a jingle that doubles the point of the witicism or redeems a pun from its native banality and makes it a thing of grotesquerie and delight. Rhyme gives an edge to his satire and a careless ill rhymes the effect of his antitheses.

It is a remarkable fact that the stories Mr. Gutterman tells in verse are better told than they could well be told in prose—there is a satisfying completeness and perspicuousness always in the author's tripping lines. Like the older masters—and especially the Englishmen—he understands the value of simplicity and a startling clearness. And his matter is always worth taking pains with. Oriental tales, appreciations of well-known authors, book reviews, comments upon the passing show, fanciful humoresques—all his subjects have merit of some kind in them and all are handled with consummate ease. One is sorry only that more of Mr. Gutterman's "rhymed reviews" were not included in the present volume. The author is so adept in untangling the action of a story and hitting off its traits in verse that he puts to shame the prosing of the pedestrian reviewer.

NEW CASTLE

Our great national Thanksgiving day is now a memory. Another national festival has come and gone to slumber with all the days that preceded it. The day so dear to the breast of every New Englander was observed in the Island town by home-comings and family reunions. Pleasant and sad memories came to all. There were many that felt at home to this beautiful Thanksgiving—Collect. Father of Life, I thank Thee too. For old acquaintances near and true. For friends that came into my day and took the loneliness away. For all sweet memories of the past, dear memories of my dead, that send long thoughts of life and of life's end. That makes me know the light conceals. A deeper world than it reveals.

CANNOT RIDE IN STOCK CARS

No More Passengers Than Way Bills Call For.

The Boston and Maine railroad has issued orders to all freight conductors which directs them to see that there is no more free rides in stock cars. Each conductor will hereafter satisfy himself that the number of attendants designated on way bills shall accompany horses and other livestock in transportation. If the conductor has any doubt as to the number of passengers in a freight car with the stock shipment he must climb into the car and investigate.

The order came out as the result of people in care of stock, taking company in the cars at the expense of the railroad.

Accidents will happen but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. Two sizes, 25c and 50c, at all stores.

PARDON OF WILLIAMS OPPOSED BY THE STATE

Atty. Gen. Tuttle Makes Protest Against Petition—Sen. Gallinger Favors Pardon.

Concord, Nov. 26.—The hearing on the pardon of John Williams today was one of the longest and most spirited held before a governor and council in recent years.

The hearing began this afternoon at three o'clock and the arguments in favor of the pardon were not finished until after 6 o'clock. Then at the evening session the case against the pardon was put in, Attorney General Tuttle and County Solicitor Albert P. Sherry conducting the opposition.

Col. Stephen S. Jewett of Laconia handled the case of the proponents of the pardon and called upon a distinguished array of men and women to make their appeal to the pardoning board. These included former Governor Charles M. Floyd of Manchester, Senator Jacob H. Gallinger, Judge James W. Remick, Mrs. Remick and Mrs. Jeanette K. Gallinger.

Governor Floyd declared that when a petition for a pardon of Williams came up before him and his council in 1907, Williams would have been pardoned had they not believed that he was to be given a new trial. Governor Floyd said that he was satisfied from the transcript of the evidence that was produced at that time that the recital of circumstances attending the arrest and trial of Williams, that he was not the man who fired the shots that killed the two men and wounded another.

It was reported unofficially that a telegram was received here today, from the Crown attorney for the Dominion of Canada, saying that if Williams is pardoned, the Canadian authorities desire that he be held in custody pending an application for extradition for a crime with which he is charged in Canada.

General Tuttle and County Solicitor Sherry argued against the pardon. They also put in four witnesses to testify that the evidence against Williams as the man who fired the shot was conclusive.

These included Mrs. Ida Donovan, who saw the shooting, Sheriff Edward S. Young of Stratford county, then a policeman in Dover and the man who arrested Williams; Chief Thomas W. Johnson of the Dover police department, assistant chief in 1900, when Williams was arrested and Napoleon Lesco.

It was apparent that those who appeared before the council to oppose the pardon were bitterly against any clemency for Williams, an ardent opposition in fact as the proponents, led by Senator Gallinger were.

Feelings of humanity were the principal points emphasized by those in favor of Williams' pardon, although it was stated that the evidence on which he was convicted was entirely circumstantial and that a sentence of 50 years was not out of reason.

The time required in hearing the pardon case was so long that it was impossible for the governor and council to take up the regular business and a meeting will be held tomorrow morning.

NEW HAMPSHIRE BANKS ARE O. K.

One Out of Seven That Lived Up to Usurious Law.

Washington, Nov. 26.—In reply to criticisms of the American Bankers' Association in connection with his declaration that many national banks charge usurious interest rates, John Skilton Williams, comptroller of the currency, issued a statement tonight, again giving instances of such practices.

Mr. Williams said that it was true that the majority of national banks obeyed the usury laws of the various states but that the reports rendered to him showed, as he announced in speeches, that this was far from being universally true.

"The only states where there were no national banks which admitted under oath in their statements of September 2, 1915, that they were charging as high as 12 per cent of their loans were New Hampshire, Connecticut, Delaware, Mississippi, Rhode Island, Vermont and Wisconsin," said the statement. It added that reports of Sept. 2, 1915, showed that 2,743 of the 7,613 national banks of the country were charging ten per cent on some loans.

Mr. Williams suggested that hereafter national banks be required to print in their published statements of conditions the maximum rate of interest charged. He expressed the hope that the association would work with the comptroller's office to end the practices complained of.

ALLIED TROOPS MOVE ON SOFIA

Franco-British Forces from Salonica to Cut Line to Constantinople.-- Move Will Compel Recall of Bulgars Laying Them Open to Attack From the Rear.

Paris, Nov. 26.—Further landings of French and British troops are reported at Salonica today, as a sequel to the settlement of the controversy between the allies and the Athens government concerning the entente powers' campaign in the Balkans.

At Uskub, 120 miles northwest of Salonica, on the Nish-Salonica railroad, the allies will swing to the northeastward, along the Uskub-Sofia railroad line, with the Bulgarian capital as its objective.

German communications with Constantinople can be cut at Sofia as effectively as at a point in Serbia, and the campaign will have the additional advantage of striking at Bulgaria's vitals.

A Russian movement across Roumania can also be conducted as well against Sofia as into Serbia.

Army officers point out that an allied invasion of Bulgaria will compel the immediate recall of the Bulgarian forces in Serbia, compel an advance of the Germans into the same territory in defense of the line to Constantinople and give the Serbs an opportunity to strike the invaders of their own country in the flank.

CROSS, FEVERISH CHILD IS BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated give "California Syrup of Figs."

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "Fruit Laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "Fruit Laxative" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

Knight, land and buildings on Congress street, $1.—Ellen P. Rice to Frederick Warden, land and buildings on Park street, $1.—Frederick J. Rider to Marian D. Rider, premises corner Miller and Lincoln Avenues, $1.—Carrie A. Wright to Henry O. "Tommy Atkins" as nothing else could and has made him the most popular man in England, was his little visits to the various hospitals where sick and wounded soldiers and sailors were being nursed back to health. Mr. Lauder, refusing many engagements made a tour of these hospitals, in every one of which he gave an extended entertainment, singing all his well known songs and improvising numbers that he thought would be of the greatest interest to the sick men.

"It really would have warmed your heart to see how the poor fellows appreciated our efforts to lighten their troubles, and it made me feel mighty good to think that I was doing my part to make them happy. Here's a field for many a travelling actor. If he knew how good it would make him feel he would use his spare time while playing in these towns where hospitals for the sick are located, to make the poor fellows feel a bit happier."

MUSICAL ACT CLOSES HERE THIS EVENING

TED STEEL'S COMPANY HAS BEEN ONE OF THE BIG HITS PLAYING AT THE PORTSMOUTH THEATRE THAT THE CITY HAS SEEN

The last opportunity to see and hear Ted Steel's big musical comedy company's act at the Portsmouth Theatre will be lost after tonight. The audience last evening were just as pleased with the show as they have been since it started here on Monday last. "Fun in a Pawn Shop" the sketch being played since Thursday, is one of the most amusing and entertaining acts presented in the city for many months. The singing and dancing numbers last evening were well received and heartily applauded by the audience and the laughter at the comedy in the act was almost continuous during the forty-five minutes that act occupied. There isn't a dull moment that can be discovered and as the songs are new and well rendered, the chorus composed of pretty girls who know how to dance, and the vocal artists delivering their numbers in an almost perfect manner, there is little opportunity to find fault with Ted Steel's company's work while they have been playing here. The last performance starts at 8.15 this evening.

HARRY LAUDER

Harry Lauder the great Scottish comedian will be seen here on December 3 at the Colonial Theatre. He has been a busy man since he returned to England in December last. ## CONDEMNS PEACE PLAN OF FORD

Americans in London Think It Will Get Hostile Reception in Europe.

London, Nov. 26.—Henry Ford's peace ship plan has greatly upset many members of the American colony, who say it will only bring ridicule on America in Europe and have an unfortunate effect on American business enterprises.

One well known English peace exponent strongly condemned the idea, saying it is most ill advised, especially as great feeling already has been aroused against Mr. Ford because the British people don't care to have things emanated down their throats by Americans, or perhaps by any other nationality. Americans would feel resentment if we tried to do the same thing to them.

"These Americans who want to further the cause of peace in this country would do the most good by consulting with those interested in peace in this country, who will let them know what is best to do and the proper time to do it."

A prominent business man, a member of the American Society in London, said:

"It is disgusting to think of such a thing as a peace ship at this time. If carried out this plan will make life miserable for every American business man in Europe, who will have this crack scheme dinned into his ears from all sides."

A member of the American Luncheon Club expressed this wish:

"I hope they meet a German submarine."

In official quarters no comment has been made on the plan. Should the peace ship touch here, those landing would have to wait four days before being able to obtain permits to go to the continent.

Good Lighting

How little thought most of us give the matter of illumination in our homes, yet what is more vital not only to our eyesight, but to the good appearance and cheerfulness of a room?

Good lighting does not necessitate the purchase of expensive fixtures—merely the adaptation of proper burners and shades to any fixture.

If you are still using the old fashioned open tip gas burner you are not getting the light that you should for your money. By the use of the incandescent burner, which is easily fitted to any fixture and shade, as pleasing effects can be had with gas as with electricity.

MCADOO WANTS AN INCREASE IN TAX LEVY

Washington, Nov. 27.—Cost of the administration's defense program for the first year would be met by an increase in internal taxation, it is said, giving its approval to Secretary McAdoo's suggestion.

In a formal announcement Mr. McAdoo declared his belief that an increased tax levy was preferable to a bond issue adding that it could easily be borne by the American people. He would raise the necessary revenue by lowering the income tax exemption and assess various commodities.

Secretary McAdoo's statement was issued in connection with an estimate of the federal government's revenues and expenditures up to the close of the next fiscal year. He places the amount of additional revenue required for the expenditure for the 1917 at $12,806,331 including $93,000,000 for new measures for national defense. This estimate is based upon the assumption that congress will continue in effect the present emergency tax law and customs duty on sugar.

It is explained that while the proposed army and navy appropriation in 1917 would represent an increase of preparedness considerably in excess of the $93,000,000, a part of the expenditures actually would not be spent during that year.

That amount it is stated would cover the increase for which additional revenues must be found by the next congress.

"If congress approves of Secretary McAdoo's proposals, the income tax exemption on single persons would be reduced from $3000 to $2000 and on married persons from $4000 to $3000; the sur-tax on incomes above $20,000 would be lowered to $10,000 or $15,000; and new taxes would be imposed on numerous articles including gasoline, crude and refined oils, horse power of automobiles and other internal combustion engines.

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"Pape's Diapiesin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapiesin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't sit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with noxious odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapiesin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.

The Bob Ott Company, which made such a hit here last spring, will play a week's engagement at the Portsmouth Theatre beginning next Monday. All new shows will be given and Ott has practically the same capable company that was seen here.

MUST PASS PHYSICALLY

Owing to the fact that a number of acting keepers who have failed to qualify physically for promotion on the coast guard, instructions have been sent to the district superintendents that hereafter before recommending a petty officer for an acting warrant officer he will have him physically examined by an officer of the Public Health Service as for recruitment. It is contemplated to extend this procedure to ships, so that before recommending petty officers on ships for acting warrant positions candidates will first be required to pass a satisfactory physical examination.

TRAINED ROOSTERS A BIG ATTRACTION

COLONIAL THEATRE VAUDEVILLE
COMPOSED OF NONE BUT HEAD
LINE ACTS

The trained roosters at the Colonial Theatre are creating more real appreciative talk than any vaudeville act playing here for some time. There is something fascinating about any animal which has been taught to do certain tricks, even such a simple thing as your own pet dog "shaking hands." But few have believed it possible to teach a hen or rooster to do anything. At the Colonial Theatre last evening the twenty birds on the stage proved to the audience that they have some intelligence and can be taught to perform many wonderful tricks. The act is an education to many as well as one of great interest. It is one which has appeared to the child as well as the adult.

It is seldom that six pretty girls, all fine musicians, can be gathered together, but they were there at the Colonial last evening in the "Six Dancing Violin Misses." The act is a distinct novelty with a lot of real musical merit and will prove to be one of the most entertaining in its trip through New England as it has been here.

Ryan and Riggs are two artists playing an act so different from the usual "double" as to be almost a shock. It is well staged with their one scenery and Miss Riggs is some pianist as is Mr. Ryan's singer. All three acts complete their engagements here this evening.
